Year-End Message

The year is coming to an end. For some of us it has been a difficult year, for others a year of sadness, and for some it was filled with joy. We said goodbye to loved ones, friends, and co-workers who were part of our CBMC family. Their earthly ambassadorial task is complete, but we praise God that we will see them again, because Christ triumphed over death and the grave.

However our year went, none of us could have predicted what was to come at the beginning, just as we don't know what 2026 will hold. But God knows. He is faithful, He never changes, and His hand holds us through every season.

Therefore, I want to thank every CBMC man and woman for this year, but above all encourage you for the year ahead: stand firm on the Word of God, live in obedience to Him, and do what He says. He doesn't ask for sacrifices, He asks for a heart of obedience. Jesus taught us to love God with our whole being, and our neighbour as ourselves. True love for our neighbour means that we share the Good News of Jesus Christ with them and are willing to walk a path with them - that is discipleship.

God does not leave us alone in this calling. He gives us more help than any earthly ambassador ever has: His Holy Spirit who dwells in us, His Word that guides us, His angels that protect us, the gifts He has placed in us, the creative ability He gives, and a family of faith that stands together. When we are willing, the Lord works through our lives, our professions and our businesses to bring in the harvest, which is already ripe.

The question is: Are you part of the Father's harvesting team? Are You Living as a Kingdom Ambassador?

May this time of rest be a time of reflection, renewal, and peace for you. May you be deeply aware of His presence, HIS guidance and HIS love.

May the peace of Christ rest upon your hearts and homes this festive season.

Blessings and peace to you all.
